

Vancouver Island

2016 ECONOMIC IMPACTS OF NEW HOME CONSTRUCTION

The new home building industry is essential to Vancouver Island's economic strength and prosperity.

4,571

New housing starts – a key to economic growth in our community.

10,220

On-site and off-site jobs in new home construction, a major source of employment in Vancouver Island.

$596

Million in wages – that show up in purchases across the entire local economy.

$2.1

Billion in investment value – the largest single wealth-builder for most families.

For more information, please contact: Kelsey Botting, Executive Officer
CHBA-Vancouver Island | 170 Wallace Street, Nanaimo, BC V9R 5B1
(250) 755-1366 | kelsey@chbavi.com | <http://www.chbacvi.com/>

Economic Impacts were calculated by Will Dunning Inc. Economic Research for the Island.

Estimates based on 2016 data from Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation and Statistics Canada. Acquisition costs included in "investment value" total as well.

Zenterra Developments

