Recent Big Policy Wins

Elimination of the GST on all new homes under $1M for First-Time Buyers.

30-year amortization periods on insured mortgages for all buyers of new construction homes, and all first-time buyers on any home, new or resale.

Housing affordability key priorities in recent Federal Budgets & election campaigns.

Conditions to support the increased broad adoption of gentle density and incent the streamlining of approval processes at the municipal level through the Housing Accelerator Fund.

Actions to support public transit and the development of nearby higher density housing.

A three-year freeze on increasing development charges if provinces want to access new federal infrastructure funding.

The release of public lands for more housing supply.

CHBA successfully intervened in two Supreme Court cases to ensure greater certainty in land expropriation cases.

Ongoing development of an industrial strategy for home building to support a move to more factory-built methods – a direct result of CHBA's Sector Transition Strategy.

New financing incentives to encourage homeowners to build accessory dwelling units (ADUs).

Changes to regulations to eliminate/reduce burden on builders/developers (e.g., Underused Housing Tax, Foreign Buyers Ban, Forced Labour in Canadian Supply Chains).

Home Accessibility Tax Credit doubled for renovating for disabilities including aging in place.

Canada Job Grant launched—up to $10k/employee for training.

Changes to the immigration system to target skilled trades (Express Entry draws).

Extensive Federal investments in core infrastructure & transit now to be tied to housing supply outcomes.

Extensive Federal activity to inform and encourage housing supply, including $20M over 4 years to StatsCan and CMHC to modernize and enhance the collection and dissemination of housing data.

Active engagement in National Building Code commission, committees, working groups.

BuildForce Labour Market Information to support advocacy – 22% of the workforce expected to retire over the next decade; Canada will need 1.04 million workers to help meet housing targets.
